

Strengthening CSOs to Take Action on Economic Governance (SCAEG)

Project Factsheet

Overall Objective

To maximise civil society action in the governance of economic development in the coastal area, for greater accountability, transparency and inclusive participation in decision making in Cambodia.

Specific Objective

To create an enabling environment for action by civil society (CSOs and their Networks representing fishing communities, with a focus on women and youth leaders) in economic governance through inclusive and creative platforms, and engagement in political dialogue with key decision makers and economic actors at local and national levels.

Target Location:

4 coastal provinces of Cambodia

Co-funded by the European Union

Target Groups:

46,920 Fisherfolks
170 Community representative
34 Community Fisheries

04 Provincial Community Fishery Networks

150 Citizen journalists

470,000 People digital reach

National and sub-national government official

Private sectors

Project Duration:

36 months

01st Nov 2023

30th Oct 2026

Budget:

EUR 972, 223

Implemented By:

Outputs

Output 1.1

CSOs have increased capacity in mobilisation and evidence-based advocacy for fair and transparent economic governance at local and national level.

Key activities

- CSO capacity development
- Evidence-based documentation
- Cross provincial networks
- Radio talk shows

Output 1.2

Coastal Community Fishery networks are fully operational and active in multistakeholder and political dialogue for better economic governance.

Key activities

- Provincial CFIs network establishment, support and functioning
- International, regional, national, and provincial dialogue, forums and conferences
- CFIs network and activists
- Legal assistant and coaching

Output 1.3

Increased and inclusive access to and use of digital information related to community resources and development projects for target communities and the general public.

Key activities

- CSOs and community capacity development in data and GIS mapping
- Launching and enhancing the online natural resources information platform
- Community profiling and mapping
- Youth and activist social media supports

Output 1.4

Increased CSO and network participation in policy dialogue and collective advocacy at local, national, regional and international level for the accountability.

Key activities

- SEIA study
- Community-led action supports
- Mangrove campaign
- Case studies documentation
- Responsible business conduct monitoring and campaigns
- New Fishery Law and Environmental Code advocacy for approval and implementations

For more information about the project:

ActionAid Cambodia

#33, Street71, Sangkat Tonle Bassac, Khan Chamkarmon, Phnom Penh

Tel: +855 23 211 462

Email: e-mail.cambodia@actionaid.org